All our timber constructions come from sustainable forests.
We source our cabins from the Carpathian mountains.

MOBILE HOMES

Timberlogbuild is a timber construction that can supply and build and transport a variety of mobile homes to suit any design or budget.

Are you looking for a timber construction company that can build you a wooden mobile home? Then we are the right choice, because of our vast experience in the design and build of wooden mobile homes. We build wooden mobile homes to meet a variety of specifications, with the ability and resource to work to tight deadlines.

We believe a wooden mobile home should be sturdy, and be able to withstand the forces imposed upon them while being moved. For that reason all our wooden mobile home designs are built to last
